

The National Museum of Contemporary Art has free admission for the following:-

1. Children under 12 and unemployed European Union citizens.
2. Wheelchair-bound guests and upto 1 caretaker
3. Researchers, curators, restorers, museum studies professionals, and/or members of cultural organizations who are also members of APOM/ICOM and/or ICOMOS
4. Volunteers participating in an exercise at the DGPC, plus 1 observer
5. College, high school, and elementary school educators who are on school-approved study trips
6. Professional journalists with advance notice
7. Organizations recognized by Portugal's Social Solidarity Institutions, Local Authority Social Action Departments, or other relevant governmental bodies (prior authorization by DGPC)
8. Educational institutions may arrange for guided tours and educational trips to take place (prior booking)